Helen's Problem

Helen loved reading books and she could write very good stories.

Her best friend Mary couldn't write stories, but she always won the first prize in singing contests.

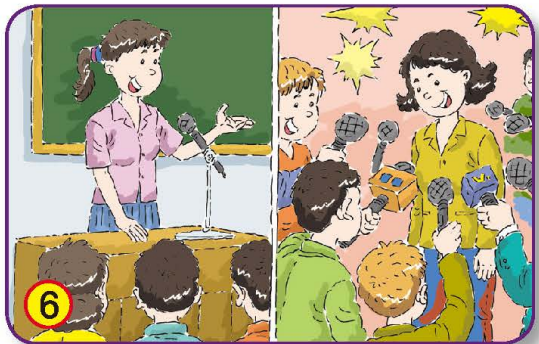

Helen wanted to win a prize in singing, too. She practiced a lot, but finally Mary won the prize again.

Helen was not happy and she talked with her mom.

"The sparrow is small but it flies fast. The seagull is slow but it flies far. You and Mary are just like the sparrow and the seagull."

Helen didn't feel sad any more. Many years later, both Mary and Helen were successful.

Poem

Bed in Summer

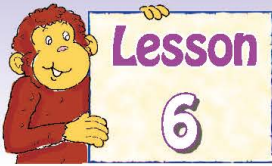

by Robert Louis Stevenson

In winter I get up at night
And dress by yellow candle-light.
In summer, quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree,
Or hear the grown-up people's feet
Still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

Little Red Riding Hood

One day, Little Red Riding Hood went to visit Grandma on the other side of the forest.

In the forest, she saw a big wolf and he asked her some questions about her grandma.

The wolf came to her grandma's house. Grandma wasn't at home. He put on Grandma's hat and lay in the bed.

When Little Red Riding Hood came, the wolf jumped out of the bed. The girl was scared and ran out of the house.

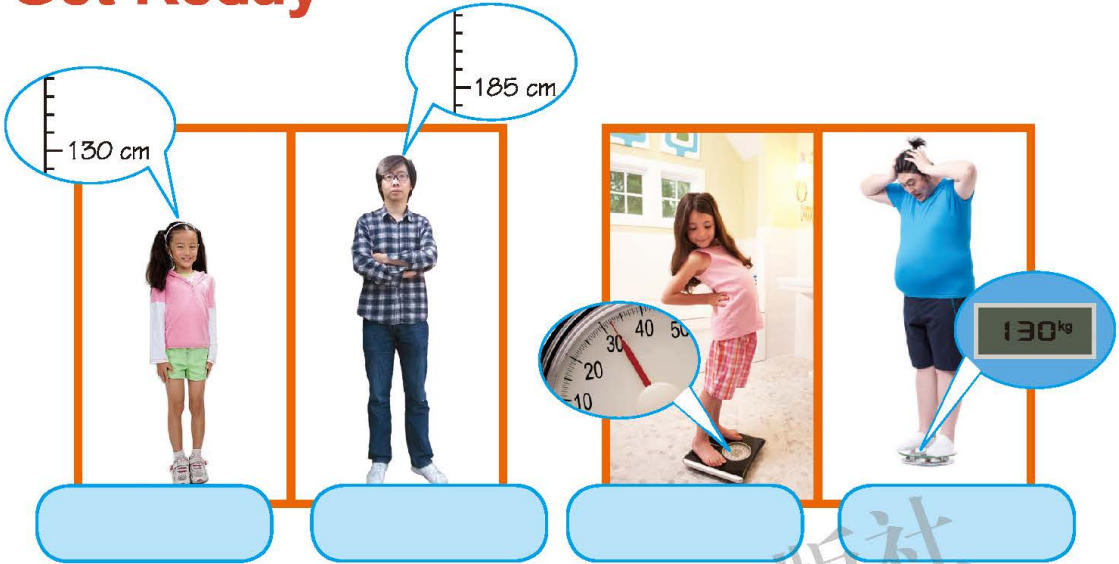

A man saw Little Red Riding Hood and the wolf. He saved the girl.

Little Red Riding Hood was happy to see Grandma again.
